Summary:

At 9:00 A.M. on April 23rd, Corporal Scott Meritt and Corporal Tyler Mazzocco from the Carlsbad Police Department Community Policing Division arrested Theodore Felicetti for a felony warrant related to driving under the influence of alcohol and/ or drugs and three other misdemeanor warrants related to the same offense. Theodore Felicetti was arrested in the back lot of the Fox News Studios, at 7191 Engineer Road in the City of San Diego. Theodore Felicetti was at the Fox Studios performing with his Beatles cover band "HELP" to promote an upcoming Viejas Concert series.

Corporal Scott Meritt found Theodore Felicetti by looking up the Facebook page for the band "HELP". Posted on the "HELP" Facebook page was a picture Theodore Felicetti, including other band members, and the upcoming locations where the band would be playing. According to the "HELP" Facebook page the first event the band had scheduled was at the Fox News Studio.

In plain clothes, Corporal Scott Meritt and Corporal Tyler Mazzocco went to Fox News Studios and contacted Fox News Studio employees. After speaking to Fox News Studio employees it was confirmed Theodore Felicetti along with the band "HELP" were playing a Beatles cover set in the Fox News Studio back lot. Not wanting to interrupt the performance, Corporal Scott Meritt and Corporal Tyler Mazzocco waited until "HELP" went off live television and contacted Theodore Felicetti. After a brief conversation with Theodore Felicetti, Corporal Scott Meritt and Corporal Tyler Mazzocco confirmed the warrants and placed him under arrest.

Carlsbad Police Officers had attempted to locate Theodore Felicetti at his residence in the City of Carlsbad without success. The use of Facebook allowed the officers to locate Theodore Felicetti with the click of a mouse.

As of 1:30 P.M., Theodore Felicetti was being held at San Diego County Sheriff's Department Central Jail with bail set at $130,000.
